

Website Privacy Policy

Rémy Cointreau USA, Inc. ("RCUSA") is committed to protecting your personal privacy. We provide this notice to explain the type of information collected and how that information is used.

Personal Information

Before you may enter the website, you will be required to verify that you are of legal age to consume alcoholic beverages (at least 21 years of age for United States residents) in the country in which you are located. We screen for this information to prevent minors and people in countries where alcoholic beverages are prohibited from accessing the website.

When visiting the website, we may ask you questions on an aggregate basis (we don't identify you personally with the information) and such questions will be identified on the website. In all other instances, you should assume that we will track any information you provide on a personally identifiable basis.

In certain parts of the website, we may ask you to provide your name or other personal information so that we can provide you with information that you request, respond to feedback that you submit to the website, or allow you to participate in one of our contests or sweepstakes. Further, we may ask you for demographic data, such as your preferred language or country of residence, in order to tailor your experience on the website, display content customized to your preferences, and to otherwise administer the website. You are under no obligation to provide us with this information, but without it we may not be able to fulfill some types of requests. If you do not want your personal information collected, simply do not submit it through the website.

Data Collected Automatically

In addition to information that you provide us voluntarily, RCUSA may collect aggregate information in the form of Internet Protocol ("IP") addresses. An IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are browsing the Internet. Web servers, the computers that "serve up" web pages, automatically identify your computer by its IP address. When you request a page from this website, our servers log your IP address. We do not link IP addresses to anything personally identifiable, so although your session will be logged, you will remain anonymous to us.

Cookies may also be used to help speed up your future activities or to improve your user experience by remembering the information that you have already provided to us. We do not use cookies to retrieve information from your computer that was not voluntarily provided by you. The use of cookies is an industry standard.

No Collection of Personal Data from Children

The website is not directed toward minors and may not be accessed by persons who do not verify that they are of legal drinking age. Further, RCUSA will not knowingly collect any information from minors, whether with or without their parent's or guardian's consent, or provide any personal information collected from children to any third party.
